NOW, CONVERSATION

Feel free to use these questions to keep conversation flowing—only if you need them!

1. What is a meal or snack your family eats that you found out other people think is strange?
2. Talk about what your name means and what you like or don't like about it.
3. When you hear the term "ethnic pride," does it have positive or negative meanings for you? Is "ethnic pride" something you feel, or do you notice it more in other people? Should it be encouraged or ignored?
4. What is something about your own family or culture that you wish you knew more about? How could you learn more?
5. What is something about a different culture that you are curious about? How could you learn more?
